Johnson a 'Faker and Phony,' Sen. Goldwater Declares

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Republican presidential hopeful Barry Goldwater Wednesday said President Johnson is "the biggest faker in the United States."

Goldwater also called Johnson one of the phoniest individuals who ever came along.

The Arizona senator, enroute from a speech before a captive nations committee, fired his verbal missile at Johnson in answer to a newsman's question concerning civil rights.

The newsman asked if Goldwater expects the Democrats to make a strong issue of the fact that the Republican platform does not uphold the constitutionality of the new civil rights act.

It was then that Goldwater labeled Johnson a faker and a phony.

Goldwater then said in a sharp tone that Johnson, "has been opposing civil rights legislation until this year."

"Let them (the Democrats) make an issue out of this," he said.

"I will just read the thousands of words he (Johnson) has spoken against anti-poll tax legislation, the FEPC, and equal accommodations."
